

NIEHS must adopt the new non-animal testing methods immediately and completely replace the use of animals in lethal dose testing. There was an agreement in October of 1999 in which non-animal cell cultures were supposed to be used instead of animals. Please keep your word and show that you are a part of an honorable organization. Thank you.